Commonwealth's Attorney Milton P. Bonifant, of Powhatan county, with Sheriff E. A. Baugh. Were in Richmond yesterday to take the confession, it is believed, of a prisoner in the Richmond jail, although they decidined last night to indicate who it was who had turned State's evidence, beyond confirming the fact that there had been four complete confessions. These two officials, assisted by Policeman C. M. Johnson, of Richmond, brother of the murdered man, and Attorneys L. O. Wendenburg and R. G. Bouthall, have spent the time since the crime in working up evidence, and will be ready for the prosecution at the April term of the Powhatan Circuit Court before Judge George J. Hundley. The defense will be in the hands of H. M. Smith, Haskins Hobson and W. M. Justis, Jr.

Mettye Was Robbery.

Motive Was Robbery.

Motive Was Rebbery.

The motive for the murder and arson was robbery. The impression prevailed in the neighborhood, according to the confessions, that Mr. Johnson had derived a large sum of money from the sale of his year's crop of tobacco, in the marketing of which Joa and Isham Taylor had been employed as laborers on the farm. As a matter of fact, only $112 had been paid on account of a larger amount due for the tobacco. It was believed by the negroes be the farm that Johnson had paid a part of the money to Mrs. Skipwith for a place of land he had purchased from her. The confession made in Richmond jail yesterday indicates that a spy, whose name is known, was placed at the dance which Mrs. Johnson was attending on the night of the murder. After the house had been fired and the roof had fallen in. Joe Taylor went down to the dance and inquired for Mr. Johnson, it is believed as a blind. Isham Taylor took the first train the next morning for Richmond.
